

The world is full of hate

Dont encourage it

Oh how I wish.
By Jordyn 4/04/24

Oh how I wish
that we would stop judging others
because of their skin.

Oh how I wish that the shootings
and killings of innocent people
would stop.

Oh how I wish that innocent people would stop getting arrested
because of their skin and culture.

I wish that the world
would stop
hating each other.

Oh how I wish
racism was never a thing.
